

Development of office spaces

2015 - 37 600 sq.m.

2016 - 67 000 sq.m.

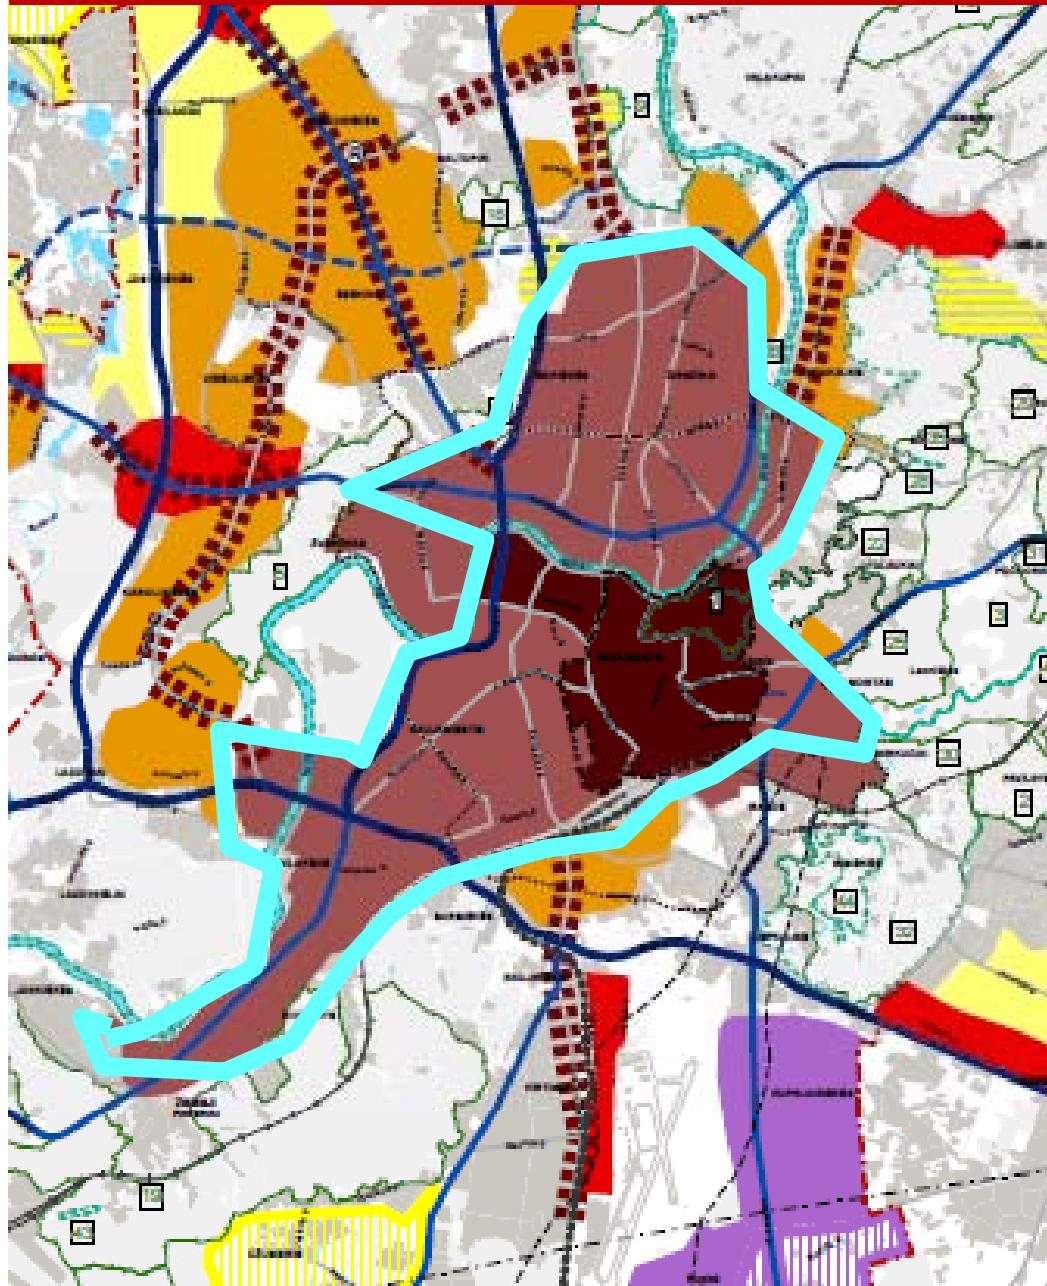

2017 – 50 000 sq.m.

Vilnius - the city where I want to live

Extended compact part of the city centre

1. Historic typology of urban structure (perimetric blocks, city villas)
2. Clearly defined public and private spaces;
3. Rows of trees in the streets - (alleys)
4. Car parking is forbidden between sidewalks and elevations.

Redevelopment of brownfields

Potencialas - 500 ha

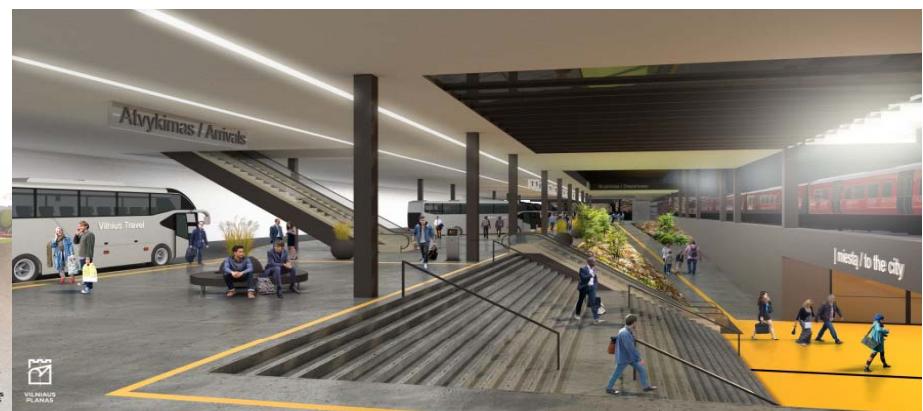

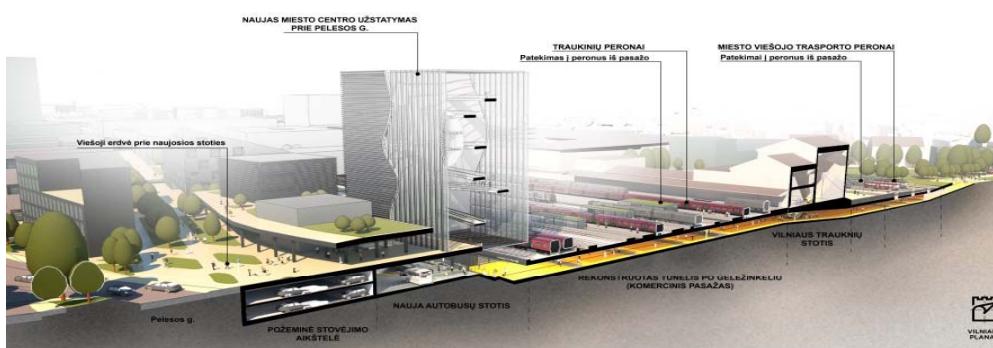

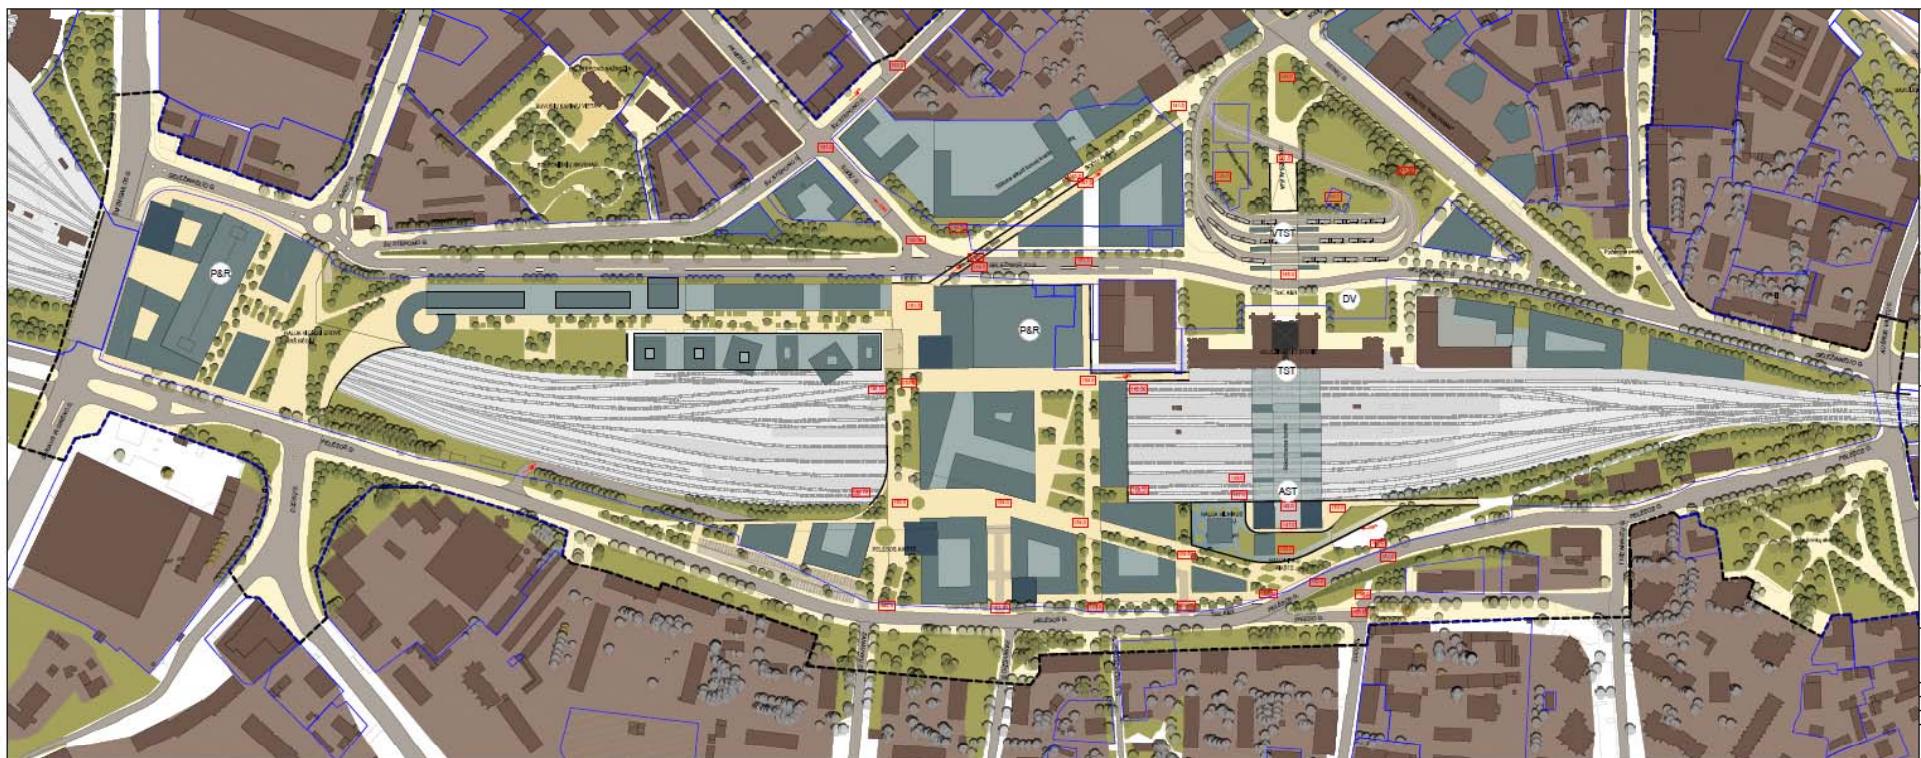

Miesto centre - 120 ha

New projects in historic sorrouunding – “Park of Architecture”

Reconstruction of Railway station

“Urban Hill” Vision 1960 - 2000

“Urban Hill” regulation

Development of shopping centers

2004

2015

Miesto linijinių centrų formavimas pagal transportinių koridorių modelį

New possibilities in soviet –built blocks

Smart means of traffic

New regulation for car parking places

Challenges for the future: redevelopment of soviet-built blocks

Renovation of public spaces

Preserving the identity of city districts: Typology of urban structure

Regulations to protect identity of urban structure

1. Possible types of urban structures
2. The height (average and max)
3. Intensity of development
4. Density of development
5. Minimal plot area
6. Maximal quantity of dwellings per plot